

Glamour gowns

2010 CASA Glamour Gowns Event Saturday March 13 at the Los Angeles Convention Center

For the ninth year, BPC will partner with CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Los Angeles to help teenage girls in foster care select prom dresses and accessories, to assist in setting up for the event, as well as to serve as a collection site.

Requested Donations:

Fancy jewelry, hair ornaments, evening hand bags and wraps, make-up, toiletries, new dress shoes, and new or clean gently used prom dresses, especially in large sizes.

Drop off: in the Church office any time by March 8.

Help at the L.A. Convention Center:

Friday, March 12 - Sort and organize prom gowns and accessories.

Saturday, March 13 - Help girls select gowns and accessories.

For more information, contact CASA liaison Jan Miller, 310-459-0377.

To volunteer, contact Chantel Paniagua, CASA of L.A., 323 526-6316 or

Cpaniagua@lasuperiorcourt.org

The mission of CASA is to serve the needs of abused, abandoned and neglected children in the Los Angeles County Dependency Court system and in the community and to provide the best possible information to the judges who make decisions about these children's futures. A CASA volunteer is appointed to an individual foster child's case and becomes that child's "Voice in Court."*